

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Terry Nall has been an active and involved member of the Dunwoody community for more than 20 years including volunteer work at his church, St. Luke’s Presbyterian, the Boy Scouts of America, and the Dunwoody Homeowners Association; and

WHEREAS, Terry Nall and his wife Donna are the proud parents of Rory and Adam Nall. As a parent and council member, Terry successfully advocated for dual certification for schools within the DeKalb County School System; and

WHEREAS, Terry Nall has gallantly served St. Luke’s Church for more than 20 years and his dedication has made a significant mark on its success. His immeasurable efforts include holding positions of Elder and Clerk of Session, and youth advisor, and extend to changing the light bulbs throughout the building; and

WHEREAS, Terry Nall was elected as a council member for the City of Dunwoody on November 8, 2011 and served with distinction for two terms. During his eight years on council, he was attentive to details and thoughtful with analysis. Terry served as a strong advocate for public safety and public works projects, and was an active participant in community events; and

WHEREAS, the City of Dunwoody was served with distinction by Terry Nall and his positive “Dunwoody is my passion” attitude; and

WHEREAS, the City of Dunwoody foresees that Terry Nall will remain an active citizen of our community, and that his time, talents, and energy will continue to serve the betterment of his community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Denis L. Shortal, Mayor of the City of Dunwoody, do hereby recognize and commend Terry Nall for his selfless service to the City of Dunwoody; his professionalism and contributions to the community are an example and inspiration to his colleagues, his friends, and his family.

Furthermore, I hereby proclaim December 9, 2019 as in the City of Dunwoody and urge all citizens to join me in recognizing him for all of his accomplishments.

TERRY NALL DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Dunwoody, Georgia, to be affixed, this 9th day of December 2019.

City of Dunwoody

Denis L. Shortal, Mayor

Attest:

Sharon Lowery, City Clerk