

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Pam Tallmadge has been an involved member of the Dunwoody community for over thirty years; and

WHEREAS, Pam Tallmadge and her husband Keith raised their three sons, Blake, Troy, and Jay in Dunwoody. Pam Tallmadge was a member of the first graduating class at Dunwoody High School. Pam Tallmadge is both a huge Georgia Bulldog fan and also an Alabama Crimson Tide fan, except when they are playing UGA; and

WHEREAS, Pam Tallmadge was an active volunteer and advocate for the public schools in Dunwoody and beyond. After serving multiple roles in her children’s schools and regional organizations, she helped start the Dunwoody High School Community Association, which recognized her with the Mary Frazier Award in 2021. She continued her work for Dunwoody students long after her own children had graduated; and

WHEREAS, Pam Tallmadge has a lifelong love for music, and she has shared her talents with our community. The congregation at Dunwoody United Methodist Church has been blessed to have her as a member of the choir, and all of us have been fortunate to watch her perform in many musicals; and

WHEREAS, Pam Tallmadge has served our community in numerous ways; particularly by leading two of our most beloved events. Her tireless volunteerism for Light-Up Dunwoody help create a fabulous event, and her decade-plus leadership of the Dunwoody 4th of July Parade has seen it grow into the largest in the state; and

WHEREAS, Pam Tallmadge was elected to the Dunwoody City Council in November 2015 and has served with dedication, creativity and enthusiasm. Pam Tallmadge has been involved in helping move Dunwoody forward, and her impact is seen and felt across the city; and

WHEREAS, as Pam Tallmadge moves on to the next chapter in her life, the City wishes her well on this next stop of her journey. Our community is a better place because of Pam Tallmadge. Our schools, our organizations, our community events, our parks and more are better because of Pam Tallmadge.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lynn Deutsch, Mayor of the City of Dunwoody, Georgia, do hereby recognize and commend Pam Tallmadge for her selfless service to the City of Dunwoody. I hereby proclaim July 12, 2021 as in the City of Dunwoody and urge all citizens to join me in recognizing Councilwoman Tallmadge for her accomplishments, her dedication and her contributions to our community.

Pam Tallmadge Day

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Dunwoody, Georgia, to be affixed, this 12th day of July 2021.

City of Dunwoody

_____
Lynn P. Deutsch, Mayor

ATTEST:

_____
Sharon Lowery, City Clerk