

Dangers Threatening DeKalb Teenagers and How to Protect Them

Students and Parents, Mark Your Calendars

You don't want to miss these two opportunities!

one

Ignorance is No Defense AND

The Council on Drugs and Alcohol

Thursday, February 5, 6:30 to 8:30 pm
Dunwoody High School

(Students and Parents will attend in separate locations)

J. Tom Morgan, a highly respected former prosecutor and experienced trial lawyer, provides straightforward information and valuable insights to help teenagers avoid violating the law and avoid being victims of crime." Mr. Morgan is author of Ignorance is No Defense, A Teenager's Guide to Georgia Law. This seminar for students and parents will explain Georgia laws to teenagers in easy-to-understand language. For a preview, visit www.ignoranceisnodefense.com

Chuck Wade, the President for The Council on Alcohol and Drugs for the state of Georgia, will discuss the dangers of substance abuse. Mr. Wade, the State Director of "Drugs Don't Work in Georgia" has 15 years of experience as a police officer and undercover narcotics agent. www.livedrugfree.org

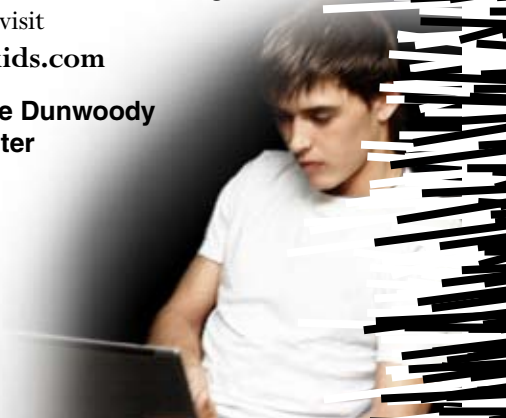

two

Screen Addicts: Understanding Our Kids' Online Realities

Thursday, February 12, 6:30 to 8:30 pm
Dunwoody High School
*(Parents Only)

Stacey DeWitt, founder and CEO of Atlanta-based Connect with Kids, offers a reality check into today's online world of text messaging, posting and surfing. Join us for a frank discussion about what kids seeing, "saying" and doing online. Ms. DeWitt, an attorney and television journalist, founded Connect with Kids, today the nation's largest video news gathering organization focused on issues impacting children, to support her passion for helping families. For more information, visit www.connectwithkids.com

Brought to you by the Dunwoody Sylvan Learning Center

For more information, contact: Linda Cooper at elcoopers@bellsouth.net, Patty Perkins at tuckperkins@bellsouth.net, Pam Tallmadge at pamtallmadge@comcast.net, Denise Greenberger at dsgmcm@hotmail.com